

SULLIVAN COUNTY, NH

At the Center of New England

Map data ©2018 Google

Sullivan County is 528 sq mi and is home to 14 towns and a city. The major cultural anchors are primarily in the City of Claremont and her neighboring towns of Newport and Cornish.

KATE LUPPOLD

*Executive Director,
Library Arts Center*

The Library Arts Center is a regional cultural and arts center, where residents and visitors can observe, study and participate in the Arts.

VIRGINIA “BIDDY” IRWIN

*NH State Representative,
Sullivan County District 6*

Newport NH has an active Newport Opera House Association that presents local theater and bands, as well as special outdoor collaborative festivals.

MELISSA RICHMOND

*Executive Director, West Claremont
Center for Music and the Arts; Musician*

WCCMA programs feature outstanding innovative music, arts education, and creative economic development.

PENNY WHITMAN

*Field Specialist, Community and Economic Development, Sullivan County,
UNH Cooperative Extension*

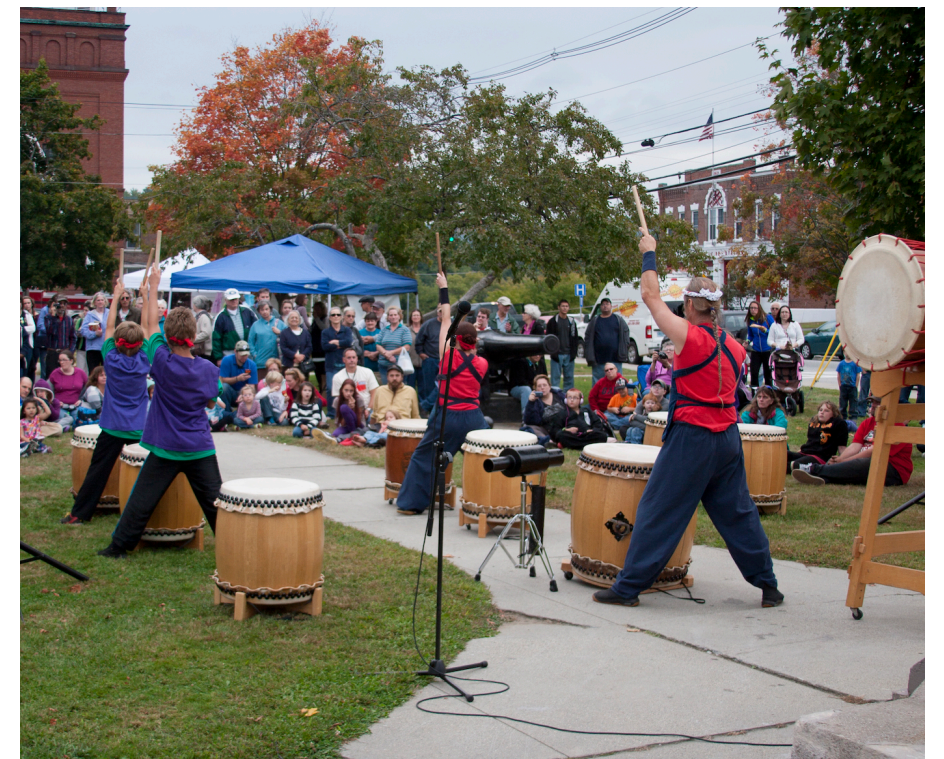

JEFF BARRETT

Chair, Sullivan County Commissioners; Owner, The Ink Factory

Claremont, a former mill town, has an active Community Center that hosts programs like the HopStop, a collaborative project with Dartmouth College and WCCMA, as well as a number of outdoor events, and a stunning Opera House.

STEPHANIE KYRIAZIS

*Chief of Interpretation, Education, and Visitor's Services, Saint-Gaudens
National Historic Site*

Saint-Gaudens National Historic Site was the summer home and studio of sculptor Augustus Saint-Gaudens. The site hosts hiking trails, a lively summer music series, and modern art exhibits alongside the artist's works.

SULLIVAN COUNTY GOALS

- Create county wide connections to network, leverage assets, present cooperative programming
- Form a creative identity for Sullivan County for visitors, locals, and residents
- Find cross-sector opportunities
- Learn what we haven't yet imagined