

COVID-19 CLEARINGHOUSE

SPONSORS & SERVICES

WITT O'BRIEN'S

- CARES Act, ARP and ERAP design and implementation
- Designed a centralized grant management office to oversee all federal COVID relief funds
- Vaccination response support
- FEMA public assistance expense reimbursement
- Other long-term recovery programs: broadband expansion and mortgage assistance programs

- Provides support for large-scale COVID-19 recovery programs like ERAP, ARP and the CARES Act
- COVID-19 vaccine implementation planning and distribution
- Experience with the global match environment and can engage partners to overcome typical "pitfalls"
- Offers a team of specialists who lead the field in disaster and emergency preparedness, response, recovery and mitigation are able to work with the varied federal awarding agencies responsible for implementing the ARPA funding

- Developing or refining strategies related to COVID response by industry, sector, region or other area
- Assisting in the program design, distribution, management and compliance related to grants and other funding sources
- Help in actually executing and maximizing the performance of funds once deployed

- Strategic evaluation of COVID-19 funding opportunities and federal funds maximization prioritization (ARP)
- Advisory support to target improvements in education, infrastructure, transit, technology, government operations, public health services and both economic and workforce development
- Project management support
- Support for integrated program and grants management systems
- Oversight and compliance

- If you would like more information on any of these partners -
Contact Jack Peterson, NACo's Director of Strategic Relations, at jpeterson@naco.org