

RAC mobile tour was a sweet success

NACo First Vice President Greg Cox, a San Diego County, Calif. supervisor, examines a water filtration pipe. Photos by Charlie Ban

Farm Bill Summit attendees tour the Glades Lake Region Water Treatment Plant in western Palm Beach County.

That's 100,000 pounds of brown sugar back there. Mobile workshop tours included a look inside a warehouse at the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative, which owns and operates one of largest sugar mills in the world.

Mike Turbeville, Glades Lake Region Water Treatment Plant superintendent, shows off a water filter.

Palm Beach County, Fla. Mayor Melissa McKinlay moderates a panel on nutritional programs helped by the Farm Bill.

Shawn Tasset, Ford County, Kan. commissioner, chats after panel discussions.