An Introduction to Pay for Success: An Innovative Mechanism to Finance Local Public Health Efforts

Pay for success, also known as social impact bonds, is an innovative funding tool that drives government resources toward effective, results-based social programs. The model is increasingly being used to finance public health efforts and address the nonmedical, or social, determinants of health in communities across the country. Learn more about this innovative financing model and how Third Sector, a national nonprofit, is assisting communities across the country in implementing programs that save taxpayer dollars and measurably improve the lives of people in most need.

Presenter:

- Mr. Jerry Croan, Senior Fellow, Third Sector Capital Partners

Discussion Leaders:

- Mr. Nick Macchione, Director of Health and Human Services Agency, San Diego County, Calif.
- Ms. Carol Moehrle, Public Health Director – Idaho North Central District (Nez Perce, Latah, Clearwater, Lewis and Idaho Counties)
